WARNING

Under Indiana law, a school is not liable for an injury to, or the death of, a participant in physical fitness activities at a physical fitness activity location if the death or injury results from the inherent risks of the physical fitness activity. Inherent risks of physical fitness activities include risks of injury inherent in exercise, the nature of a sport, the use of exercise equipment, or the use of a facility provided by a school. Inherent risks also include the potential that you may act in a negligent manner that may contribute to your injury or death, or that other participants may act in a manner that may result in injury or death to you. You are assuming the risk of participating in this physical fitness activity.

The undersigned participant (“Participant”) acknowledges the receipt of a written copy of the warning set forth above in connection with the physical fitness activity being undertaken by Participant and agrees to assume the inherent risk of injury in physical fitness activities. In consideration of Participant’s use of the facilities and equipment of North Vermillion Community Schools (the School Corporation), Participant releases the School Corporation, its Board of School Trustees, officers, employees, and volunteers, from any liability. Participant acknowledges full satisfaction, release, and discharge of and from any and all claims, demands, actions, or causes of action, which Participant, or the heirs, executors, or successors in interest of Participant now has or may hereafter have on account of any and all injuries to person and damaged property arising out of any and all activities pertaining to the use of the facilities and equipment by Participant. Participant agrees to comply with all School Corporation rules, policies, and procedures in his/her use of the facilities and equipment.

Participant represents that he or she is authorized, qualified, and physically and mentally able to use the facilities and equipment at the activity and location identified above.

Nothing in this document is to be construed as an admission of liability on the part of any party, person, or entity hereby released. It is agreed that the terms of the covenants and agreements are voluntarily accepted by Participant.
